On The Way

Saint Augustine: Donatism and the Church

During Augustine's life, the Church in Northern Africa was still reeling from the effects of Emperor Diocletian's persecutions (303-305). In those years, Churches had been destroyed, sacred books confiscated, and Christians forced to burn incense to the pagan idols. Many Christians went to their death in witness to the faith. Others suffered imprisonment. Some found clever ways around the persecutions. Still others simply apostatized in the face of suffering.

Predictably, when the persecutions ceased, a division emerged. Those who had suffered for the faith took a hard line against those who seemed to have found another way around persecution or had outright fallen away. And the lapsed seeking to return didn't find a merciful welcome from those who had suffered.

The defining moment in the controversy was when the bishop Donatus (whence Donatism) demanded that the clergy who had handed over the sacred books be re-baptized and re-ordained. Their lapse had somehow nullified their sacraments and removed them from the Church. When others disputed his decision and showed clemency, battles ensued – not only over church buildings but really about the Church herself. All of this was still in the air during Augustine's time as Bishop of Hippo.

Donatism was an excess characteristic of a devout people. The Donatists were another version of the Pharisees – the Holy Ones who feared nothing more than unholiness. Donatism was also a controversy characteristic of Christians struggling to live the faith in a pagan culture. It involved age-old questions. How do Christians live separately? Is any accommodation to the world permissible? How can sinners be reconciled to the Church? Is there any room for them? Saint Paul had struggled with this issue in his letters to the Corinthians.

The Donatists' answer was simple and harsh: the Church had to be kept free from all impurity. They wanted a perfect Church for perfect people. This response betrayed a profound lack of confidence in the holiness of the Church and thus an entirely defensive response to the pagan culture. The fortress mentality blunted their ability to evangelize. It made them hesitant to go out into the world for fear of being tarnished by it.

In the end, the Donatists rejected the mystery that the Church is both holy and yet composed of sinners. It is a mystery as old as the Church herself, as old as Jesus' choice of the Twelve, as old as the parable of the weeds among the wheat (see Mt 13:24-30). Unwilling to acknowledge the mystery, the Donatists just isolated themselves.

All of this should sound familiar, and we should have a certain sympathy for the Donatists. Because we too struggle to live the faith in a pagan culture. We are burdened by the same questions. How do we keep the Church holy without isolating ourselves? How do we go into the world without giving in to it? How should Catholics conduct themselves in the world – at work...in the store...in politics, etc.? How does the Church call her members to holiness without becoming rigorist and intolerant of weakness? How does she show mercy to the lapsed without becoming lax?

Augustine faced these questions with a great confidence that the Church can embrace sinners without herself becoming corrupt. Perhaps because of his own sinful past, he understood the importance of the Church's patience in drawing others to herself. He understood that the Church's holiness is found in her Founder and her Spirit, not in her sinful members.

No, we can't be like the Donatists and purge the Church of all sinners. But the questions remain. And Augustine's response from centuries ago has found a nice summary in words from Vatican II: "The Church, clasping sinners to her bosom, at once holy and always in need of purification, follows constantly the path of penance and renewal" (CCC 827).

National Family Planning Awareness Week

The Church celebrates Natural Family Planning (NFP) Awareness Week from July 20-26, 2025. This year's theme is Pursue a lasting love... MARRIAGE, Create hope for the future! The dates of Natural Family Planning Awareness Week highlight the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, conjugal love, and responsible parenthood. The dates also mark the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother.

Natural Family Planning is the general title for the scientific, natural, and moral methods of family planning that can help married couples either achieve or postpone pregnancy. The methods are based on the observation of the naturally occurring signs and symptoms of the fertile and infertile phases of a woman's cycle. No drugs, devices, or surgical procedures are used to avoid pregnancy. Since the methods of NFP respect the love-giving (unitive) and life-giving (procreative) nature of the conjugal act, they support God's design for married love!

Do you want to learn more about NFP, are you rusty at it, or a pro wanting to encourage other couples?

Please join the Saint James' NFP group, Way of Life. They invite all interested in NFP for good conversation and fellowship on Wednesday, July 30th, at 7:00pm at Godfrey's, 421 W. Broad Street, in the upstairs front room.

If you have questions, email Danielle Aguilar, daniellekaguilar@gmail.com, or Laura Kirchgraber, LFKirch@gmail.com. All are welcome to join!

The Ann C. Cook Education Fund for Students with Disabilities

We are pleased to announce the establishment of a new school fund named in memory of Ann Cook, a beloved parishioner and school alumni who lived an extraordinary life marked by adventure, kindness, and generosity until her death on December 4, 2023.

The purpose of this fund is to expand our school's inclusion program to better serve our students with intellectual disabilities, such as Down Syndrome.

A secondary purpose is to inspire our students to imitate Ann's virtues of fortitude, generosity and joy in the face of challenges and adversity.

You can learn more about Ann and the fund named in her memory on the next three pages of this bulletin.

Saint James CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Ann Cook Education Fund for Students with Disabilities

THE FUND

The purpose of this new fund is to expand our school's inclusion program to better serve our students with disabilities. It is named in memory of Ann Cook, a beloved parishioner and SJS alumni who lived an extraordinary life marked by adventure, kindness and generosity until her death on December 4, 2023.

About Ann

ANN WAS BORN ON DECEMBER 1, 1952, to Jack and Edie Cook. She attended Saint James Catholic School with her six brothers (Pat, Mike, Chris, Timothy, Dennis and Andy) and multitude of Cook cousins. The Cook families were an integral part of the Saint James community, with the 4th generation of Cook's attending St. James School today!

In August of 1977, Ann had a diving accident that left her paralyzed and a quadriplegic. This was a life-altering event which Ann faced with great courage, dignity and strength. After intense rehabilitation, Ann began her new life which included learning how to drive again, living independently with the help of friends and family, and beginning a 25-year career with the Defense Mapping Agency, which included many awards and honors.

Ann was known for her kindness, deep faith and great love for her family and friends. She always had a contagious smile on her face, which instantly brought joy to others. She loved her 17 nieces and nephews, often delighting them with rides in her wheelchair. Ann was a diehard Nats fan, even working as a customer ambassador to escort guests to their seats. She faced the challenges of life with great optimism and fortitude. Ann nobly embraced her Cross and because of this, she radiated love to others. Until the very end of her life, Ann knew how to love.

We hope this new fund in memory of Ann Cook will inspire you to give so that more students may be served through our expanded inclusion program.

Thank you!

OUR CURRENT PROGRAM

- Educates two students with Down Syndrome (Preschool and Middle School).
- Inclusion in regular classes with peers, plus one-on-one instruction.
- Peer Mentoring program (modeled after Bishop O'Connell High School).
- Participation in school activities (e.g., Living Stations, plays, and service projects).

The Ann Cook Education Fund for Students with Disabilities

OUR FUTURE GOAL

- To increase the number of students with disabilities.
- To hire a F/T Special Education Teacher to provide support via modified curriculum, peer mentor program and specialized teacher training.
- To provide a pathway for our students with disabilities to later attend a Catholic High School with an inclusion program (e.g., Bishop O'Connell).
- To allow our parish families to send all their children to Catholic school!

HOW YOU CAN HELP

- Expanding our Inclusion Program requires hiring qualified staff, which is an annual financial commitment for our parish school.
- The Cook family has generously provided the initial seed money for this new Fund but more financial resources are needed.
- Our initial goal is to raise $150,000 through one-time and renewable monthly gifts.

*Thank you for your generosity and support of Catholic Education, particularly for our students with intellectual

Feast of Corpus Christi and Eucharistic Procession

Saint James celebrated the Feast of Corpus Christi with our choir after the noon Mass on June 22nd with a Eucharistic Procession led by Father John Paul Heisler that followed Park Avenue to Oak Street through Lot B to Broad Street in front of the school and then to Spring Street, finishing inside the church.

The procession had two Benedictions of the Blessed Sacrament. The event ended with a farewell reception for Father John Paul in Monsignor Heller Hall. Despite the heat, it was great to see the turnout of our parishioners to share the joy of the true presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.
