On The Way

Catechesis on Worship: From God

Last week we considered that worship is for God. It has other attendant effects, of course. But to engage in worship other than first to recognize, celebrate, and proclaim God's glory – is to mistreat God. It is to use him as a means to an end. This is the truth guarded by the First Commandment: "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them or serve them" (Ex 20:2-5; cf. Dt 5:6-9). Jesus confirms and deepens this truth in his confrontation with the evil one: "It is written: 'You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve'" (Mt 4:10).

Now we turn to another, seemingly contradictory, aspect: Worship is from God. That might seem impossible. If worship is what we owe to God... how could it be from him? Here we come to face to face with our own creatureliness. We depend on God for everything, even for our ability to praise him. As one prayer from Mass puts it, "You have no need of our praise, yet our desire to thank you is itself your gift." We cannot worship properly unless he takes us in hand and guides us.

Even more because in our wounded human nature the natural instinct to worship is distorted and misguided. History gives us many examples of mistaken worship. Human sacrifice and cultic prostitution were commonplace in the ancient world. The 16th century colonists found human sacrifice practiced in Mexico. Similarly, in the Old Testament. When the Israelites grew weary of waiting for Moses to descend from Mount Sinai, they took worship into their own hands (Ex 32). They conscripted an all-too-willing Aaron to fashion a golden calf for them. They fell immediately into idolatry and then sexuality immorality.

Clearly, we need to be guided. If we don't allow God himself to instruct us, then our worship goes horribly astray. Saint Paul observes, "we do not know how to pray as we ought" (Rom 8:26). That's true for our personal, private prayer. It's also true for public worship. We need to be instructed and enabled to do it properly. Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger once observed, "Man himself cannot simply 'make' worship. If God does not reveal himself, man is clutching empty space...[T]he real liturgy implies that God responds and reveals how we can worship him."

Thus, Catholic worship isn't our invention, doesn't spring from our imagination, and isn't our own idea. The Mass was instituted and entrusted to us by Christ himself at the Last Supper. We participate in the Mass; we don't invent something new. We enter into the sacred mysteries, into the form of worship God has given us; we don't create them ourselves.

Likewise, the Liturgy of the Hours is principally the Psalms and other songs, canticles, and readings from scripture. Which means that we're not praying in our own words but in God's words and allowing those to shape our minds and hearts.

Obviously, liturgies develop and change throughout the centuries. But the essentials are entrusted to the Church by God and ensure that we are not merely "clutching empty space" but really worshipping "in spirit and in truth" (Jn 4:23).

“Light of Faith, Light of Truth: The Church as Cradle and Defender of Science”
A conversation with Father Rich Miserendino

Wednesday, April 26th, 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall

Father Rich Miserendino discovered his love of faith and science during his undergraduate studies at the University of Rochester and the Eastman School of Music. There, by the grace of God, many good friends and professors helped him question and deepen his understanding of the relationship between faith and reason, the church and science. After completing degrees in Physics, Mathematics, and Music Performance, he returned to Northern Virginia to work as a defense contractor (SAIC) by day, and by night as a professional musician. He entered the Seminary in 2009, first at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary and then the Pontifical North American College. He holds degrees from both the Pontifical Gregorian University and the Pontifical University Saint Thomas Aquinas in the City (Angelicum) in Rome. Currently, he serves as a parochial vicar at Saint Bernadette in Springfield.

EXCELLENCE IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY

“Where We Ignite the Potential in Each Child.”

Join the Petition for a Crossing Guard at Broad and Spring Streets

Citizens for Safer School Crossings is organizing a petition to request that Falls Church City establish a crossing guard position at the intersection of Broad and Spring Streets during peak school commuting hours.

The intersection of Broad and Spring Streets serves as a major pedestrian crossing linking sizable residential areas to several schools across the Little City’s busiest thoroughfare, Broad Street. Students of Oak Street Elementary, Saint James Catholic School, Mount Daniel School, Mary Ellen Henderson Middle School, and Meridian High School all would benefit from a safe, monitored crossing at this intersection.

It is critically important that the city establishes a crossing guard at this intersection given the demonstrated accident history. On December 20, 2021, just after 4:00pm, a young child was struck by a motorist at the intersection, resulting in critical injuries. In the wake of this tragic accident, Mayor David Tarter rightly noted that “pedestrian safety is, and will remain, a top priority for City Council.” The Citizens for Safer School Crossings petition respectfully requests the City Council follow through on this pledge. The safety of the Little City’s future deserves nothing less.

To sign the petition, visit this link, <http://bit.ly/3M7DL9Z>, or scan the QR code with your phone.
