On The Way

Catechesis on Worship: For Man

The second century Church Father Saint Irenaeus of Lyons observed, "The glory of God is man fully alive." It's an extraordinary statement in the history of religion. Something about pagan gods (ancient and modern) requires man's subjugation and humiliation. The pagan mindset sees God as our competitor – the more he has, the less we have – and approaches worship accordingly. Irenaeus teaches something different: God's glory is not achieved at the cost of man's dignity. On the contrary, God is glorified most when man is fully living his divine calling. Which also means that proper worship – the glorification of God – ennoble us.

Irenaeus's observation was announced first by the angels on Christmas: Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. The degree to which we seek God's glory determines our peace here on earth. Again, to glorify God redounds to our benefit. We never have a greater stature than when we kneel before God in worship. Jesus teaches the same truth when he declares that "The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath" (Mk 2:27). Proper worship is to ennoble and dignify, not debase. Even our mortifications and penances have as their goal not our debasement but our purification from all that is unworthy of us.

Thus, true worship is for man. Not in the sense that it's directed to him, but that it confirms and builds up who we are. It is for man because it makes us more human. Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger writes, "Worship, that is, the right kind of cult, of relationship with God, is essential for the right kind of human existence in the world." The reason we can be so inhuman to one another is because we fail to worship the true God. When we worship in spirit and in truth, then we situate ourselves properly in God's creation and realize our true purpose. But if we don't make God central in our lives, then something less ennobling takes his place.

We will worship something. We're created for that purpose. The true God fills his worshippers with grace and dignity. The Catechism says, The worship of the one God sets man free from turning in on himself from the slavery of sin and the idolatry of the world (CCC 2097). On the other hand, we debase ourselves when we worship something other than the one true God. We become slaves of what we worship. [E]mpty idols make their worshippers empty (CCC 2112).

So, a mistake about worship is a mistake about man. Just as true worship completes, fulfills, and ennoble man, so false worship damages him. In many cases, it makes him look ridiculous. In other instances, it leads him to grave evils, such as the human sacrifice and cultic prostitution in the ancient world.

This means that the more we allow ourselves to be formed by the Church's liturgy, and the Mass in particular, the more we realize our true dignity. The liturgy's elevated language teaches us the great power of human language and should lead us to speak with greater care and truthfulness. The physical dimension of the liturgy should deepen our reverence for the body, by which the Son of God comes to us in the Eucharist. Our care for Christ hidden in the simple and poor form of bread should prompt us to care for him also as he is hidden in the poor and vulnerable in our midst. In all these things we become more fully alive and glorify God.

“Light of Faith, Light of Truth: The Church as Cradle and Defender of Science” A conversation with Father Rich Miserendino

This Wednesday, April 26th, 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall

Father Rich Miserendino discovered his love of faith and science during his undergraduate studies at the University of Rochester and the Eastman School of Music. There, by the grace of God, many good friends and professors helped him question and deepen his understanding of the relationship between faith and reason, the church and science. After completing degrees in Physics, Mathematics, and Music Performance, he returned to Northern Virginia to work as a defense contractor (SAIC) by day, and by night as a professional musician. He entered the Seminary in 2009, first at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary and then the Pontifical North American College. He holds degrees from both the Pontifical Gregorian University and the Pontifical University Saint Thomas Aquinas in the City (Angelicum) in Rome. Currently, he serves as a parochial vicar at Saint Bernadette in Springfield.

Our Hospitality Committee will provide light appetizers and drinks for guests.

Join the Petition for a Crossing Guard at Broad and Spring Streets

Citizens for Safer School Crossings is organizing a petition to request that Falls Church City establish a crossing guard position at the intersection of Broad and Spring Streets during peak school commuting hours.

The intersection of Broad and Spring Streets serves as a major pedestrian crossing linking sizable residential areas to several schools across the Little City's busiest thoroughfare, Broad Street. Students of Oak Street Elementary, Saint James Catholic School, Mount Daniel School, Mary Ellen Henderson Middle School, and Meridian High School all would benefit from a safe, monitored crossing at this intersection.

It is critically important that the city establishes a crossing guard at this intersection given the demonstrated accident history. On December 20, 2021, just after 4:00pm, a young child was struck by a motorist at the intersection, resulting in critical injuries. In the wake of this tragic accident, Mayor David Tarter rightly noted that "pedestrian safety is, and will remain, a top priority for City Council." The Citizens for Safer School Crossings petition respectfully requests the City Council follow through on this pledge. The safety of the Little City's future deserves nothing less.

To sign the petition, visit this link, <http://bit.ly/3M7DL9Z>, or scan the QR code with your phone.
