On The Way

Catechesis on Worship: From Man

An essential of Catholic worship is that it is from God, our participation in the Son's eternal praise of the Father. At the same time, it is from man. Indeed, this is one reason for the Son's becoming man — so that through, with, and in him we can offer proper worship.

To be from man also means that our manner of worship is in accord with our human nature. Years ago, Cardinal Ratzinger wrote, "Man is always looking for the right way of honoring God, for a form of prayer and common worship that pleases God and is appropriate to his nature" (emphasis added). As God, Jesus offers the worship perfectly pleasing to the Father. As man, he gives us a form of worship that is in accord with who we are.

Our Lord commands us to love God "with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind" (Lk 10:27). Similarly, Saint Paul: "I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship" (Rom 12:1). The Catechism says, "It is the whole man who prays" (CCC 2562). Thus, every dimension of our being, the whole man — body and soul; intellect, will, and passions — is called upon in Catholic worship.

There is, first, an intellectual component. Catholic worship is ultimately a mystery and beyond the power of the human mind to comprehend — but not unreasonable or irrational. Saint Paul's reference to God as our "spiritual" worship could also be translated "reasonable" or "rational." We worship the One who is truth (cf. Jn 14:6). So our worship can and ought to be appreciated (although never exhausted) by the human mind. We should apply ourselves to understanding as much as we can the readings and prayers at Mass. Indeed, our minds should be formed by the truth of our worship.

Further, our worship also requires the investment of will. It's easy to become a bystander at Mass. We just float along on the current of everyone else's responses, not really participating but just occupying the same space where Mass happens to be. This error is all the more common in our entertainment-addicted culture. We expect from Mass the entertainment we've come to expect in all other areas of life. But authentically human worship means that we invest ourselves in the prayers by an act of the will. The more we make the prayers our own, the more powerful they become before God.

Since we are not pure intellect and will, worship also engages our emotions. Indeed, more than that, the liturgy is the best former of the emotions. Year after year, it trains us in the two fundamental emotions — joy and sorrow — by bringing us to rejoice in our Lord's birth, sorrow at his death, and rejoice again in his resurrection. There's not a human emotion that is not at some point incorporated into the liturgy and consecrated to the praise of God.

Finally, our worship involves the body. Human worship cannot be a purely spiritual affair because we are not pure spirit. We stand, kneel, bow, and make the sign of the Cross. We use physical objects such as water, oil, bread, wine, fire, and salt. We have vestments, chalices, altars, candles, and incense. Catholic worship leads us to involve our bodies because our bodies are part of who we are.

Thus we are privileged to participate in worship that gathers and brings before God the fullness of who we are.

IHM Sisters Centennial Celebration 1923-2023

This year marks the centennial of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM) at Saint James Catholic School. On September 17, 1923, under the leadership of Mother Josepha Clarke, the IHM Sisters began teaching 92 students at Saint James Catholic School.

In addition to running our parish school, the IHM Sisters also spread the Catholic faith by teaching catechism at other parishes in our area.

To commemorate this historic event, we will have a special celebration on Sunday, September 17, 2023 – 100 years to the day from when our IHM Sisters began teaching and educating our students. We invite you to join us at the Noon Mass on September 17th, to celebrate this important milestone. A special reception for the IHM Sisters will take place immediately following Mass.

In upcoming bulletins we will celebrate the accomplishments of the IHM Sisters over the past century. If you have stories and/or pictures to share, please contact Kathleen Anderson at kanderson@stjamescatholic.org.
