On The Way

Catechesis on Worship: Ecclesial

There is a deep desire in the human heart to join with others in prayer. Yes, there is that private form of prayer, when we go to our inner room, close the door and pray to our Father in secret (cf. Mt 6:6). But every great religion displays the human instinct for some kind of communal prayer, some devotion that both expresses and deepens a people's unity. And for good reason. All of creation was brought into being to give praise to the Creator, and man is to be the priests of that worship.

The Catholic liturgy answers this desire of the human heart and purpose of creation. Indeed, one reason for our Lord's incarnation is to bring all peoples into that one voice of common praise of the Creator. This is manifested powerfully at Pentecost when people from all different nations receive the Gospel. Catholic liturgy continues that.

The word liturgy comes from the Greek for "the work of the people." It's the people's work not in the sense that we invent it but that it is the work proper to us as a people. It engages and deepens our union and identity as the Church. The Second Vatican Council teaches that "the liturgy...is the outstanding means whereby the faithful may express in their lives, and manifest to others, the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church." Our worship both makes and reveals the Church.

Thus, true worship is ecclesial – of the Church – in two senses.

First, because it is the Church's prayer. Jesus didn't entrust the Mass to one specific person. It's not the private domain of some individual or committee or community. He entrusted it to the Church under the governance of the hierarchy. Which also means that Catholic worship isn't a matter of doing whatever you like. It requires yielding to the Church's instructions, rubrics, and regulations. Now, many people see such things as constraining, if not the epitome of legalism. But such strictures maintain the liturgy as the Church's and not belonging to one person or group.

Second, true worship is ecclesial in the sense that the Church is most herself at the Mass. In our worship, we're not just a loose gathering of individuals, but the one organic body that is the Church. What makes people one at Mass is not any social, cultural, or political view but their common faith in Christ, need for salvation, and desire to praise the Father. This oneness is deepened and expressed most of all in our common reception of Holy Communion, in which we become truly one Body.

The Mass also expresses the equal dignity of all believers and the hierarchical nature of the Church. We are all equal at Mass because we are all equally members of the one Body of Christ, and we pray as that Body. At the same time, we don't all have the same role. The people worship as the Body of Christ, while the priest acts in the place of Christ the Head. Still, both body and head are necessary for proper worship.

Finally, this ecclesial dimension of worship extends beyond any one place of worship. Because it is the Church that prays, we are one with Catholics throughout the world and throughout history. Our worship in Falls Church, Virginia is the same as that of Catholics on the other side of the world. Our worship today is the same also as that of our ancestors and indeed of the Apostles themselves.

– Fr. Scalia

Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

Catholic Home Missions Collection April 29-30

In case you missed it, last week's second collection was for Catholic Home Missions (CHM). Catholic Home Missions is a grant making agency run by the U.S. Bishops. It offers financial support to missionary activities that strengthen the Catholic Church in the United States and in its territories and former territories. Through its annual fundraising campaign, Catholic Home Missions educates American Catholics about mission needs and invites them to assist fellow Catholics in the practice of the faith.

This year's CHM collection has been designated to support families who fled the violence in Ukraine, such as in the Eparchy of Stamford, CT. An "eparchy" is the ecclesiastical equivalent in Eastern Christianity of a "diocese" in the West. An eparchy is governed by an eparch, who is a bishop. Meeting the material and pastoral needs of these refugee families has been one of the main priorities of the eparchy. With support from Catholic Home Missions, the eparchy has been able to adapt and respond to those most in need during the ongoing crisis.

You can make a one-time gift via Faith Direct, <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1485>. Thank you for your support.

Special Parish Needs Collection May 13-14

Next weekend, May 13-14, is our annual Special Parish Needs collection. This collection is used by our Pastor for the area of greatest need in the parish. All money raised this year will be given to our vibrant Social Outreach Committee to continue its work on behalf of our parishioners and the broader Falls Church community. From the time of its founding in 1892, Saint James Catholic Church has always attended to the needs of the poor and suffering. Our Social Outreach Committee puts into action the Corporal Works of Mercy through food and clothing donations, monthly Food Distribution, supporting various disaster reliefs, and yearly collection of Lenten and Advent gift cards.

To learn more about our Social Outreach Committee and ways you can help or volunteer, visit their web page under the Service & Fellowship > Parish Groups menu, stjamescatholic.org/parish-groups/social-outreach.

You can make a one-time gift via Faith Direct, membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/28720. Thank you for your support.

You Are Invited

An Invitation from the Saint James Social Outreach Committee (SOC)

All parishioners are invited to a special presentation this Monday, May 8th, at 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall, hosted by our Social Outreach Committee (SOC). On this occasion, Father Scalia will present a financial gift to the founders of Contigo Youth, Mariah Naegle and Bulay Minano, who are also parishioners of Saint James Parish. This gift was made possible through the estate of Arlene Ellen Griff. Arlene was a beloved and active member of the SOC, who died on July 25, 2018. In her estate, Arlene left a bequest to Social Outreach.

In honor of Arlene's memory, SOC voted to give the entire bequest to Contigo Youth which provides after school programs and summer camps for vulnerable youth in grades one through nine. It empowers high-risk youth to thrive by providing "programs rooted in virtue, community and a relationship with Jesus Christ."

Please join us on May 8th to learn more about Contigo Youth and Arlene Griff's remarkable life.

Refreshments will be served.

IHM Sisters Centennial Celebration 1923-2023

This year marks the centennial of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM) at Saint James Catholic School. On September 17, 1923, under the leadership of Mother Josepha Clarke, the IHM Sisters began teaching 92 students at Saint James Catholic School.

In addition to running our parish school, the IHM Sisters also spread the Catholic faith by teaching catechism at other parishes in our area.

To commemorate this historic event, we will have a special celebration on Sunday, September 17, 2023 – 100 years to the day from when our IHM Sisters began teaching and educating our students. We invite you to join us at the Noon Mass on September 17th, to celebrate this important milestone. A special reception for the IHM Sisters will take place immediately following Mass.

In upcoming bulletins, we will celebrate the accomplishments of the IHM Sisters over the past century. If you have stories and/or pictures to share, please contact Kathleen Anderson at kanderson@stjamescatholic.org.

EXCELLENCE IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY

"Where We Ignite the Potential in Each Child."

Our students continue learning these last few weeks of school. The classrooms are filled with students eager to learn, a willingness to help others, and a love of God.

Second graders presented their biographies dressed as their famous person. Here we see Clara Barton and Henry Ford.

Fourth graders in the Science Lab measured the amount of sugar in different food items.

Students attended Mass which they do on a weekly basis in addition to studying religion daily as a core subject.

Fifth graders posed with their display of Paschal candles and butterflies representing the Easter season.

A sixth grader read a weather map in science class on the interactive white board.

Saint James Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

On April 19th, Saint James held its Volunteer Appreciation Dinner for our wonderful parishioners whose selfless time and talent make our community so special. More than 500 people volunteer in various capacities (or ministries) at Saint James. Each person has a story about why they step forward to be the hands and feet of Christ. The dinner was a night to celebrate with gratitude. Guests were treated to a catered dinner with lots of yummy desserts including a very popular chocolate fountain. The Hot Wonder Band returned to entertain us with a variety of music for listening pleasure. Our clergy and staff enjoyed being servers and hosts for our volunteers. For those who attended, as well as those who could not, thank you so much for being part of the Saint James community.

Faith, Screens, and our Families

(Presented by Peter Ryan)

Monday, May 22nd

7:00pm

Saint James Catholic School

Monsignor Heller Hall

Before COVID, almost half of teens described their internet use as constant. For all age brackets, young and old, screen use has gone up significantly since then.

What impact is this growing screen usage having on our children? What can we do about it?

Peter Ryan is a Catholic husband and father of four who recently retired as a Navy Captain after 28 years of service. In his free time, he began studying the profound effects that screen-based personal technology is having on our lives. He authored "Technology, The New Addiction," which was published in the September 2018 edition of the U.S. Navy Journal Proceedings. He and his 18-year-old daughter speak on this topic in the Diocese of Arlington together after she gave up her smart phone over three years ago. Come learn how screen-based technology usage is impacting your family and get advice for protecting yourself and your children from its harmful effects. This is a practical and spiritual call to action.

SJS parents who attend will receive an Ice Cream Coupon for their Saint James student(s).
