Catechesis on the Eucharist: Sinai Sacrifice

The Mass makes present the “new and eternal” covenant established by Christ on the Cross. The words of consecration refer to the “Blood of the new and eternal covenant” or “the new covenant in [Christ’s] blood” (Lk 24:20). This language is familiar because we hear it at every Mass. It is also strange because animal sacrifice is not a reality in our culture. But for the first hearers of the Gospel and the first participants in the Mass, the language was familiar and strange for other reasons.

It was familiar to those first Christians because of their Jewish roots. They understood that a covenant with God was established by sacrifice and communion. They knew well the accounts of Abel, Moses, and Abraham offering sacrifices. They were deeply familiar with the Old Covenant (Testament) established by Moses at Mount Sinai (Ex 24). An appreciation of that scene should help us understand the Mass as the fulfillment of the Old Covenant, of all that the Lord had promised.

On that occasion, Moses descended from his time with the Lord on the top of the mountain. “When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the Lord, they all answered with one voice, ‘We will do everything that the Lord has told us.’” Then, with that profession of faith, he offered burnt offerings and the sacrifice of bulls to the Lord. He “took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar.”

Then, he once again received from the people their profession of faith: “Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, ‘All that the Lord has said, we will hear and do.’ Then he took the blood and splashed it on the people, saying, ‘This is the blood of the covenant which the Lord has made with you according to all these words.’”

The same blood of the covenant sprinkled on the altar (signifying God) was also sprinkled on the people. It was the sign of communion, of that sacred kinship that they now had with one another. That is what a covenant is, a sacred kinship, God introducing us into his family. The blood was the sign and the ratification of it.

The whole scene anticipates the Mass. First there is the proclamation of God’s Word (the readings and homily) and the people’s assent (the Creed). Then there is the offering of sacrifice and the communion in the victim’s blood.

It must have been earth shattering for the Apostles to hear Jesus proclaim his own Blood as the Blood of the New Covenant. Those words were strange to them because they reveal, first, the establishment of a Covenant greater than the one at Sinai. Second, they reveal that the sacrificial victim of the New Covenant is not animals but Christ himself. All the sacrifices of the Old Testament – from Abel’s to those in the Temple on Good Friday – find their meaning and fulfillment in Jesus’ sacrifice on the Cross. Finally, Jesus’ words “Take this all of you and drink from it” revealed that the Blood of the New Covenant is received not just externally, by sprinkling, but interiorly, by our reception of Holy Communion.

The sacrifice at Sinai was the defining moment for the Israelites, the rite by which they were introduced into sacred kinship with the Lord. The Mass, although bloodless and simpler, is the re-presentation of that moment when we, by communion in sacrifice, are introduced into a and holy covenant with Almighty God.

A Reminder about Parish House Parking

We want to remind everyone about street parking by the driveway entrance of our Parish House driveway (913 Park Avenue) because construction vehicles are using the Parish House parking lot this summer for the Rocket Field renovation. The driveway is to the right of the wooden ramp entrance to the Parish House. Please make sure that your car is not parked too close to the driveway opening. Leaving space between your car and the driveway opening improves visibility for cars entering and exiting the driveway. It also gives the larger construction vehicles more space to turn in and pull out safely.

Second Collection for Diocese of Long Xuyen Mission August 5-6

Next weekend, August 5-6, there will be a second collection to support the annual Mission Cooperative Plan (MCP) Appeal for our diocese. Previously we have supported the Banica mission. This year our MCP Appeal will be for Diocese of Long Xuyen in Vietnam.

Father Vincent Lam Nguyen will be speaking about the mission at all the Masses that weekend. Through your support, the MCP Appeal helps these mission organizations form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the universal Church. This appeal helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, like Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs, like food, shelter, and healthcare. You can donate online at membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/52634.

New Mary Statue on Spring and Broad Streets

Many parishioners have asked about the statue of our Lady that used to grace the corner of Spring and Broad Streets. Unfortunately, someone tore the statue down and broke off the hands. This is not the first such assault. We do not know if it was a deliberate anti-Catholic attack or just a disturbed individual. Either way, we pray for the person and in reparation for this dishonor done to our Lady.

She will be replaced! We are currently looking at different options that will be graceful, durable, and affordable.

If you would like to make a donation to help the IHM Sisters purchase a new statue, you can donate online at membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/52563 or by check made out to Saint James Catholic Church. Contact Kathleen Anderson, 703-532-8815 x223 or kanderson@stjamescatholic.org, or if you have any questions. The Sisters thank you in advance for your support.

1949 — A Permanent Kindergarten Is Established

Below is an excerpt from the 125th Anniversary Celebration of Saint James Church.

In 1949 the first Kindergarten class began in St. James School. The Kindergarten was first located in the white house behind the convent that was once occupied by Villa Maria Academy. Later Kindergarten classes were held in the Primary wing of the school when it was completed in 1955.

MRS. MARY CLARKE (KINDERGARTEN) AND MRS. MARY DELANEY (FIRST GRADE), RETIRED TEACHERS FOR WHOM THE CLARKE-DELANEY TEACHER FUND IS NAMED.

Mrs. Mary Jessel Clarke is most remembered as one of St. James School's beloved Kindergarten teachers (1970-2009). After retiring from teaching, Mrs. Clarke stayed at St. James as a counselor in the Extended Day program. Before teaching, Mrs. Clarke was a St. James School student (Class of 1952) and, together with her husband, Jim, were school parents while their sons were in attendance at St. James.

MRS. MARY JESSEL CLARKE, 8TH GRADE SCHOOL PHOTO

Mary Jessel Clarke and life-long parishioner Jeanne McCauley Trott were both in the St. James Class of 1952. In

EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION CLASS OF 1952 WITH 72 STUDENTS

1944 Mary and Jeanne began 1st grade in the original 1905 three-classroom school. The next year the new two-classroom building, built from gifts Father Mullarkey received on his Silver Jubilee, was completed and Mary and Jeanne attended 2nd grade in one of these new classrooms. Each following year, Mary and Jeanne attended school in a new classroom as construction continued on the current school building. This large 8th grade graduation class of 72 students was the last class to go through St. James School attending each grade together in a single classroom. This was also the last class to graduate that was not required to wear a school uniform.
