On The Way

Catechesis on the Eucharist: The Bread of Presence

Another, perhaps more obscure, type of the Eucharist in the Old Testament is found in the “bread of Presence” or the “showbread” of ancient Israel. The Lord commanded this bread, twelve loaves made of fine flour, to be set in his presence on a gold table (see Ex 25:23-30). As Leviticus specifies: “And you shall set them in two rows, six in a row, upon the table of pure gold. And you shall put pure frankincense with each row, that it may go with the bread as a memorial portion to be offered by fire to the Lord” (Lev 24:6-7). The loaves were placed in the Tent of meeting and later in the Temple – that is, in the presence of the Ark of the Covenant and therefore of the Lord. They were to be replaced every week on the sabbath. Only the priests were allowed to eat the bread that had been in the Lord’s presence, and they could only do so in a holy place.

It was called the “bread of Presence,” first of all, because it sat in the Lord’s presence. But the bread also signified the presence of the people to him. Bread, after all, represents the efforts of the people, their investment of resources, time, and labor. It was also twelve loaves, signifying the twelve tribes of Israel, the entirety of the people. The smoke ascending from the incense placed with the loaves indicated that they are an offering rising to him.

The literal translation of the showbread is “the bread of the face” – which indicates the personal dimension of this bread. It represented and, in a sense, continued the banquet on Mount Sinai at which Moses and the elders “beheld God, and ate and drank” (see Ex 24:9-11).

In sum, this bread signified an offering of the people that is in turn sanctified by the Lord. Which corresponds to and is fulfilled by the Eucharist. Saint Cyril of Jerusalem (d. 386) says: “In the Old Testament also there was the shew-bread...but in the New Testament there is Bread of heaven.”

The showbread of ancient Israel was considered sacred because of its time before the Lord. But in the end, it was still bread. Our “showbread,” the Eucharist, is not just in the presence of the Lord but is in fact his Real Presence under the form of bread. In Adoration, the Eucharist is the real “bread of the face,” as we look upon him and he looks upon us.

The showbread of ancient Israel represented the twelve tribes before the Lord. The hosts at Mass likewise signify the offering of ourselves – the Church, the New Israel – to God. The priest offers the hosts as “fruit of the earth and work of human hands,” indicating the investment of our labor and lives into what is being presented to God. That offering of ourselves becomes united with Christ’s own offering to the Father. In the Mass Christ is the showbread before the Father, offering himself in sacrifice under the form of bread.

Finally, Israel’s bread of Presence wasn’t for everyone. Only the priests could consume it. Just so, the Eucharist is not extended for everyone. Only those who by baptism have been incorporated into the priesthood of Christ and have kept that communion with him are able to receive him in Holy Communion. And in that reception of Communion, we have a participation with the Apostles at the Last Supper and an anticipation of that final banquet, the wedding feast of the Lamb.

Furthering Christian Unity

The Ecumenical Planning and Study Group meets monthly to pray for, study, and promote the Holy Spirit's work of Christian unity. We take to heart the words of St. Paul, echoing Jesus himself, that Christians "be united in the same mind and in the same purpose" (1 Cor. 1:10). Starting in September, we will read and discuss Moving into the Ecumenical Future: Foundations of a Paradigm for Christian Ethics, by John W. Crossin, OSFS.

Stewardship — The Gift of Time, Talent, and Treasure

Second Collection for Diocese of Long Xuyen Mission

This weekend, August 5-6, there will be a second collection to support the annual Mission Cooperative Plan (MCP)

Appeal for our diocese. This year our MCP Appeal will be for the Diocese of Long Xuyen in Vietnam which has the added pressure of being situated in a communist country so that the practice of the Catholic faith and the ability to receive formation is often hampered by societal pressures.

Father Peter Ngoc Ngo will be speaking about the mission at all the Masses that weekend. Through your support, the MCP Appeal helps these mission organizations form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the universal Church. This appeal helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, like Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs, like food, shelter, and healthcare. You can donate online at membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/52634.

New Mary Statue on Spring and Broad Streets

Many parishioners have asked about the statue of our Lady that used to grace the corner of Spring and Broad Streets. Unfortunately, someone tore the statue down and broke off the hands. This is not the first such assault.

We do not know if it was a deliberate anti-Catholic attack or the act of a disturbed individual.

Either way, we pray for the person and in reparation for this dishonor done to our Lady.

She will be replaced! We are currently looking at different options that will be graceful, durable, and affordable.

If you would like to make a donation to help the IHM Sisters purchase a new statue, donate online at membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/52563 or by check made out to Saint James Catholic Church. Please contact Kathleen Anderson, 703-532-8815 x223 or kanderson@stjamescatholic.org, if you have any questions. The Sisters thank you in advance for your support.

A Fond Farewell to Sister Mary Sue Carwile

With both gratitude and sadness, we bid farewell to Sister Mary Sue Carwile, who has faithfully served the Saint James community for the past ten years. Sister Mary Sue was assigned as Principal of Saint James School in the summer of 2013. During her tenure, Saint James School was awarded two additional US Department of Education Blue Ribbons, was able to provide in person learning during the COVID-19 pandemic, opened a new preschool, grew its fine arts and technology programs, increased the diversity of the student population, and strengthened test scores across the board.

The second youngest of six children, Sister Mary Sue is a native of Arlington, VA. She attended Saint Thomas More parish where her grandparents were founding members and her parents, Sidney and Dorothy, were married. She also attended the parish school, where she was taught by the IHM Sisters. Sister Mary Sue first felt the call to religious life in 7th grade. Upon graduation from Bishop J. O'Connell High School, Sister attended James Madison University for one year before entering the IHM community on Our Lady's birthday--September 8, 1974. While in formation, she obtained a degree in History and Theology from Immaculata University. Sister later earned a Master's degree from Villanova University and was missioned in the dioceses of Philadelphia, Allentown, and Harrisburg before returning to the Arlington Diocese as Principal of Saint James School.

When asked about her time here at Saint James, Sister smiled and replied "I love the kids. They bring so much joy to my life. I love the community of Saint James—the parish and the school. It's full of charity and goodness. I loved being near my family these past ten years. I love the faculty and staff, their dedication and professionalism. I love the Sisters. And I loved having a dog!"

We offer our prayers and best wishes to Sister Mary Sue in her new role as an elected member of the IHM Council. We are grateful to Sister for all she has done for the entire Saint James Community.

Sister Mary Sue, we will miss you!

Thank You and Farewell, Sister Mary Sue

Vacation Bible School — “Shine Jesus’ Light”

Vacation Bible School (VBS) returned to Saint James this summer! Students were launched on a cosmic quest where they had a blast shining Jesus’ light to the world, the theme of VBS. With the Rocket Man mascot, Father John Paul as our astronaut, and Stellar “crew members”, students began every morning BLASTING OFF by talking about Jesus, praying, and singing uplifting songs and being reminded when good things happen they should “Shine Jesus’ Light.”

The students were divided into four teams to rotate through crafts, bible adventures, all-star games, and exploring their faith. Each day, the kids practiced looking for what God was doing around them. They called those signs God Sightings — they were evidence of His love and creativity in the world. At the end of camp, each crew wrote their God Sighting on a star and taped it on the God Sightings wall. Most of them wrote about random acts of kindness they saw at camp or something in nature. Students ended the week on Friday by attending Mass and presenting a show for their parents on the bible verses and songs they learned each day.

Thanks to our coordinator Julie Marx, our wonderful volunteers, as well as Father John Paul and Seminarian Ryan Malanga, for making this such a successful week with 90 kids, 40+ “crew leaders” from middle school and high school, and 15 adult volunteers!

Creation Care Ministry's Science Night

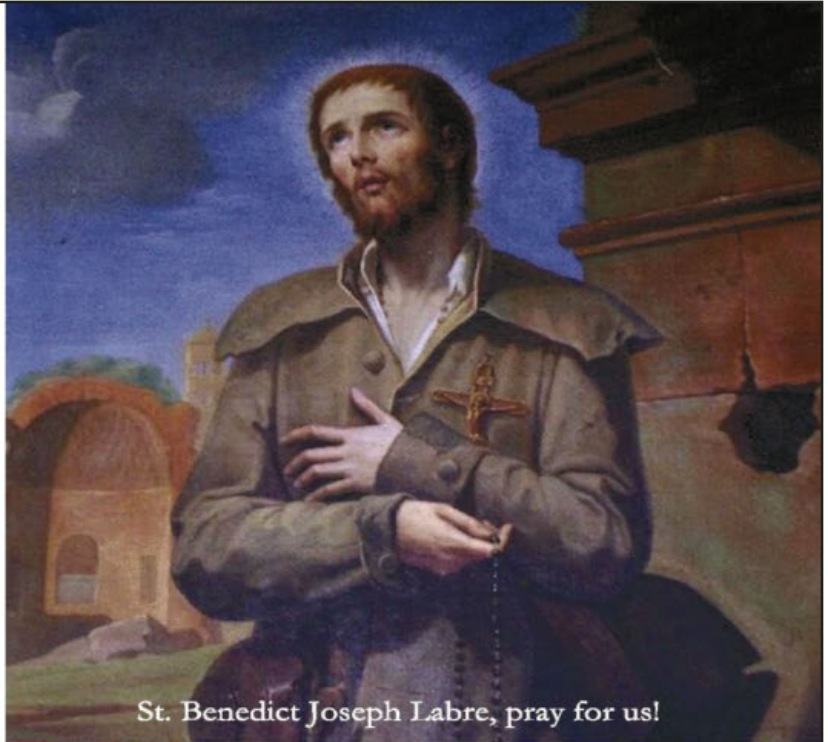

The Creation Care Ministry held their second annual mini Night of Science at our parish garden, a science outreach effort of the Creation Care Ministry. Families (over 30+ kids and guardians) were encouraged to touch, experiment, and enjoy the garden. The kids tested the pH of the soils, experimented on seeds, learned about plants in the garden and patron saints of nature and gardening, caught and observed insects and worms under the microscope, and learned about garden ecology.
