On The Way

Catechesis on the Eucharist: The Bread of Life Discourse, 2

Moses needed a name. He needed the Name of the nameless deity speaking to him from the burning bush. If this god wanted him to go to the stiff-necked Israelites and proclaim their liberation from Pharaoh...then he would certainly need to provide a name. So Moses insisted to that power in the burning bush, "If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" The voice came from the bush, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'" (Ex 3:13-14).

From that moment on, the Israelites knew Name of their God. He was "I AM" — "YHWH" in Hebrew. This was the sacred Name that only the high priest could speak, and he only once a year when he entered the Holy of Holies. The Name conveyed the Lord's transcendence, in so far as its full meaning was unclear. At the same time, it spoke of presence, because mere men could call on God by name. The Name spoke perhaps most of all of the Lord's presence to the Israelites. By way of his Name, he said I am here...I am for you...I am with you.

With this in mind, we can better appreciate Jesus' words as he comes walking to the Apostles on the Sea of Galilee: I am, do not be afraid. Jesus of Nazareth is the "I AM." He is God with us in a previously unthinkable manner. Then in Capernaum, Jesus further specifies what it means that he is the "I AM." Indeed, that phrase is conspicuous in his Bread of Life Discourse and emphasizes the importance of what he teaches.

"I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst" (Jn 6:35). This first "I AM" emphasizes the nourishing presence of the Lord. Or, better, that his mere presence is nourishing. It's significant that he doesn't yet speak of eating his Body and drinking his Blood. Just to come to him and to believe in him satisfies our hunger and thirst. These are important words to keep in mind whenever we visit Jesus in the Eucharist.

"I am the living bread which came down from heaven..." (Jn 6:51) This is the most significant "I AM" statement of the discourse. The Lord is for us and present to us as living bread. This is not mere food that nourishes the physical body. This is the presence of the living God under the form of bread — and thus living bread — and who gives us his own life. Therefore, "if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever."

Finally, Jesus touches on the sacrificial dimension of his presence: "The bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." A simple reading of this line is that he gives us his flesh to eat for our salvation. But this line also has a sacrificial tone to it. He gives his flesh for the life of the world most of all by sacrificing his Body on the Cross. As the Church Father Tertullian put it, "The flesh is the hinge of salvation." Thus, this verse touches on the union of the table and the altar, of the Last Supper and Calvary — and that the nourishment of Christ's Body in the Eucharist only comes to us by way of his Body on the Cross.

— Fr. Scalia

Parish Picnic

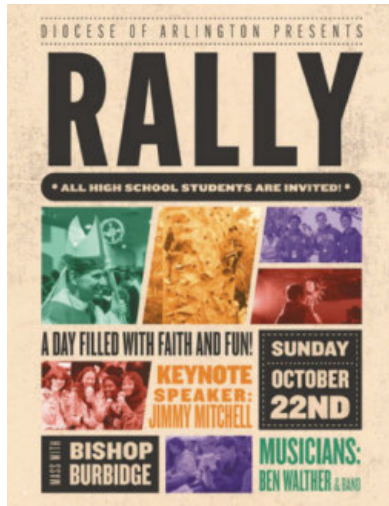

This year Saint James was blessed with good weather for our parish picnic last weekend. It was a family affair with games and activities for all ages, from the moon bounce to face painting to the velcro sticky wall. Our strolling magician who roamed around doing magic tricks was a big hit as well. The bluegrass band Sweet Yonder performed in Monsignor Heller Hall while everyone enjoyed the food. A big thank you from Father Scalia to all the volunteers, include parish and school staff, who made the picnic such a huge success and worked hard all day! A special thank you to members of the Knights of Columbus, School PTO, American Heritage Girls, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Young Professionals, and the Hispanic Community. Your generosity (or gift) of time and talent made it a great day of fun and fellowship. We are truly blessed to have such a wonderful parish community!

IHM Centennial Celebration

On Sunday, September 17th, Bishop Michael Burbidge celebrated the Noon Mass for the intention of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was exactly one hundred years to the day that the Sisters began their “Virginia Mission” as teachers at Saint James School. Their presence in our Diocese has borne much fruit these past 100 years.

At the end of the Mass, the Sisters turned to the statue of Mary and spontaneously sang the “Salve Regina” in honor of their spiritual mother. The reception at Knecht gym was great fun and the story made the front page of the Arlington Catholic Herald.

To view the Mass, read the Herald article, or see more photos from the event, go to the Saint James IHM Centennial Celebration page under the NEWS menu, stjamescatholic.org/faith/parish-religious-education-program-prep/saint-james-ihm-centennial-celebration.
