On The Way

Catechesis on the Eucharist: The Real Presence

Saint Paul concludes his narrative of the Institution of the Eucharist with this powerful description of the liturgy: "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes." Contained in this statement is the understanding that Jesus Christ is truly present in the bread and wine. For if they were just symbols, the celebration couldn't possibly carry that kind of proclamation. It is because Christ is truly, substantially present under the form of bread and wine that the celebration of the Eucharist is also the making present of his Sacrifice.

The Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist that Saint Paul teaches here has become a distinctly Catholic doctrine. Although clearly the understanding of the early Church, it is now absent in Protestant worship and teaching. But what precisely is it that the Church believes? What do we mean by "Real Presence"? If he's really present in the Eucharist...does that mean that he's not present elsewhere? No, because God is omnipresent. Nothing would exist if God did not sustain all things in being by his presence as Creator. There's nowhere we can go where God is not. So...how is the Eucharist different?

Maybe an analogy to Christmas will help. On that day, at the moment of Christ's birth, God was spiritually present everywhere throughout the world. But at that moment he was also present in a unique way in Bethlehem. There, lying in a manger, he was not only spiritually present but also physically present by way of his human body. Our Lady, Joseph, and the shepherds didn't encounter him just spiritually but physically. This is the great mystery we celebrate, that God is with us in a new and unique mode.

So, if you were alive on that first Christmas, you wouldn't have shrugged and thought, "Well, after all, God is everywhere." No, you would have, like the Magi, hastened to Bethlehem so that you could look upon and touch God present in that specific place.

Now, we should think of the Eucharist as the extension of the Incarnation. It continues to make him present not just spiritually but also bodily. You can encounter God spiritually wherever you go. In fact, you should. You should often remind yourself of his presence. You should make a spiritual communion by lifting your heart and mind to him and likewise inviting him into your soul. That he is spiritually omnipresent means that we can always be with him.

But in the Eucharist we have the added reality of Christmas. The omnipresent God is uniquely present in a specific place that we can go and visit. In the Eucharist, we encounter Jesus Christ more than just spiritually. His Eucharistic presence is what the Church calls real and substantial: his Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity.

Beginning with Saint Paul's account, the Church has always taught this. Not long after Paul, Saint Ignatius of Antioch, in his Letter to the Smyrnaeans in the year 110 A.D. laments those who "not confess that the Eucharist is the flesh of our Savior Jesus Christ, flesh which suffered for our sins and which that Father, in his goodness, raised up again." In about 189 A.D., Saint Irenaeus (a disciple of Ignatius) argued for Christ's divinity from what he clearly regards as the common Christian belief: "If the Lord were from other than the Father, how could he rightly take bread, which is of the same creation as our own, and confess it to be his body and affirm that the mixture in the cup is his blood?"

November Parish Speaker Series

“The Reality of Human Trafficking in NOVA: How to Protect Against Predators”

Wednesday, November 15th, 7:00pm

Monsignor Heller Hall

Please join us as we welcome Bill Woolf of Anti-Trafficking International on November 15th at 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall to talk about human trafficking in Northern Virginia and how we can protect against predators. Bill Woolf has dedicated his personal and professional life to combatting human trafficking and has received the Presidential Medal for Extraordinary Efforts to Combat Trafficking in Persons. He is a former detective on the Gang Investigations Unit in Northern Virginia.

Our Hospitality Committee will provide light appetizers and drinks for guests.

Dominican Corner

A Holy Land Dominican

She was born Sultana Maria (Arabic for “Queen Mary”) in 1843. Today the Church celebrates Mother Marie Alphonsine, a Palestinian Dominican who established an order of Arabic nuns devoted to praying and promoting the Rosary. Today, the Sisters of the Rosary remain a powerful force in women’s education and catechesis in Palestine, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Rome, Egypt, Kuwait, and United Arab Emirates. At her 2015 canonization, Pope Francis stressed that the new saint demonstrates how to “live in unity with one another and with charity towards all.” St. Marie Alphonsine Danil Ghattas, pray for us!

The St. Mary Magdalene Lay Dominicans invite you to join them for prayer, fellowship, and discussion next Sunday, November 19th, from 5:00pm-6:45pm in the Parish House. No sign-up needed. Email InquiryVeritas519@gmail.com with questions.

Advent Adopt A Family

Parishioners can provide much needed holiday cheer by sponsoring a specified family and ensuring they have gifts and a special meal for Christmas. Many of these families were previously homeless and need to conserve their income for rent, food and other necessities. Names of families in need are provided by social service agencies and by parish networks.

If you would like to participate or need more information, please call Mary Ann Parker at 703-241-9128 or 703-321-6854 by Friday, December 8th.

Support Falls Church Homeless Shelter

Saint James' Social Outreach Committee provides support for the winter emergency Falls Church Homeless Shelter located at 217 Gordon Road in Falls Church. The shelter's mission is to provide shelter, food, and counseling services for 12 adults in need during the winter season. This year the shelter will open from November 15, 2023, through March 31, 2024. Members of our parish serve on the board and volunteer their time to help the shelter.

How can you support the shelter? In addition to monetary support, parishioners can donate food, personal hygiene items, paper supplies, meals, and their time to work with our residents. Our website, www.fcshelter.org, provides all the information regarding volunteer work and how to sign up for the different opportunities. This year, you have the option to donate your time and spend an evening at the shelter. Volunteers are needed from Thursday to Sunday evenings from 5:30pm to midnight and will be working hand in hand with the professional staff and the residents. Training is provided for those that volunteer. The website also provides the opportunity to go to the Falls Church Homeless Shelter Amazon Wish list and order items to be delivered directly to the shelter. Thank you in advance for your help and volunteer services.

If you have questions, email Luis Frontera, luismifrontera@gmail.com, and put 'FC Shelter' in the subject line.

Natural Family Planning Group Meeting

Way of Life, the Saint James Natural Family Planning (NFP) group, will meet this Sunday, November 12th, at 7:00pm in the Knecht Conference Room. NFP questions and topics will be addressed in small groups. Please feel free to bring an appetizer, dessert, or beverage to share.

Contact Laura Kirchgraber at 716-913-4774 or LFKirch@gmail.com for more information.

Seniors Thanksgiving Feast

The Thanksgiving Feast for Saint James seniors will be in Monsignor Heller Hall on Thursday, November 16th, 5:00pm-7:00pm. The usual fixings of turkey, dressing, gravy, cranberries, rolls, and beverages will be provided. You are asked to bring vegetables, salad, or potatoes to share with at least six persons and make a $5 donation per guest to cover expenses.

A piano sing-along of Oldies and Broadway tunes is planned.

Please bring a box of cereal, small bags of rice, red kidney beans, tuna fish, or pasta to donate to Social Outreach for the December Food Distribution for those in need of groceries.

RSVP by Monday, November 13th, to Mary Anne Stallings, maryannes1935@gmail.com, or Cae Gilley, 703-533-3845, and specify what you are bringing.

Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent, and Treasure

Retired Religious Fund November 11-12

This weekend, our second collection will be for the Retired Religious Fund. Saint James takes up this collection each year for our retired priests and religious. Sadly, changing demographics, rising health care costs, and lack of funding are making it increasingly difficult for religious orders to care for those who have given their lives to God.

To donate via Faith Direct, go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1493>.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Elderly religious need your help. Like those pictured, nearly 25,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer and ministry—educating the young, tending the sick, aiding the needy, and more. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left a profound shortage in retirement savings. Your support of the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish care, medicine, and other necessities. Please give generously.

National Eucharistic Congress

Why Now? Why Attend? Because the Church needs healing. And the world needs the Church. Scandal, division, disease, doubt. The Church has withstood each of these throughout our very human history. Today, we confront all of them, all at once. Our response in this moment is pivotal.

In the midst of these roaring waves, Jesus is present, reminding us that he is more powerful than the storm. He desires to heal, renew, and unify the Church and the world.

Join us July 17-21, 2024, in Indianapolis at the National Eucharistic Congress. We will journey together as a Diocese. Over these impactful days, the Church will draw into a deeper intimacy with our Eucharistic Lord, allowing our eyes to be opened and our hearts to be set on fire with his love. This reconsecration will result in a massive outpouring of grace and renewed missionary sending as participants are moved to share the Eucharistic love of the Lord "for the life of the world" (John 6:51).

Wreaths Across America

Saint James American Heritage Girls Troop VA0681 will be participating in a service project with Wreaths Across America which involves selling wreaths to be placed on the graves of our country's veterans this Christmas season at both Arlington National Cemetery and at the US Soldiers' & Airmen's Home National Cemetery.

Wreaths Across America is a non-profit organization dedicated to honoring and thanking our veterans for their service and sacrifice by continuing and expanding the annual wreath-laying event started at Arlington National Cemetery in 1992 and now performed at cemeteries across the country.

If you would like to show your appreciation and support for our American Veterans in this way, please consider sponsoring one or more wreaths. The Saint James American Heritage Girls Troop will be placing these wreaths on grave markers of veterans at the US Soldiers' & Airmen's Home National Cemetery in Washington DC on December 16th.

Wreath Sponsorship Form American Heritage Girls Troop VA0681

To donate a wreath, please fill out this form, include a check made payable to Wreaths Across America, and return to our Troop in one of three ways: (1) Drop off at one of the American Heritage Girls' tables outside of church after Mass the weekend of November 11-12; (2) Place in the church offertory basket; or (3) Drop off at the Rectory. Orders can also be placed online at the following link: www.wreathsasscrossamerica.org/va0027p

Knights of Columbus/INOVA Blood Drive

The next quarterly Knights of Columbus/INOVA blood drive will be held on Sunday, December 3th, from 8:30am-2:30pm in the Main Hall of the Knights of Columbus Club building at 5115 Little Falls Road, Arlington.

As always, our goal is to help replenish the blood supply that INOVA shares with local hospitals, especially after the busy summer travel season. Your one donation may potentially save three lives, which one day could be your own or the life of someone you know.

To schedule your appointment, call INOVA at 1-866-256-6372 and use Sponsor Code 6216 or contact Bob Muschamp, 703-489-2856 or bobpatmuschamp@yahoo.com, with your preferred time between 8:30am and 2:30pm.
