On The Way

The Theological Virtues: Loving God in our Neighbor

Our Lord's command to "love your neighbor as yourself" isn't new. He's simply quoting Leviticus 19:18. What's new is that Jesus pairs love of neighbor with love of God. Remember, He's asked to name just one — the greatest — commandment. But he gives the two great commandments, love of God and love of neighbor. With love of self dropped in between them. The clear teaching is that these loves are really one. And that is a new teaching.

Now, there's always the temptation to separate love of God and love of neighbor. On one hand, some people seek to love and glorify God...but to the neglect of their neighbors and sometimes even their own family members. They do devout and faithful things. They worship properly and know the liturgy well and know the feasts and the saints and so on. But they are failing to love God properly by not loving their neighbor. Authentic love of God inevitably extends to one's neighbor. Our worship is not authentic if it does not result in a greater love of neighbor.

On the other hand, some people seek to love others...but without loving God or, more likely, not loving Him first and above all others. This is a form of idolatry, because we have placed someone ahead of God. It becomes pure activism and, eventually, a damaging kind of altruism. For our love of neighbor to be authentic, it has to proceed from our love of God. Indeed, we don't love our neighbor except for love of God. Only God is loved for His own sake. Only He is all good and worthy of all our love. We love our neighbor because God loves our neighbor and, since we love God, we love who He loves.

The primacy of love of God also ensures that we love our neighbor in truth. Saint Augustine's famous line applies: Dilige et quod vis fac — Love and do what you will. It's not a recipe for hedonism ("Hey, man, if you, like, love, then everything's, like, totally cool"). Rather, it's a terse recognition that when we love properly our will becomes properly ordered and we desire the right things.

If we try to love our neighbor without loving God first, then we inevitably love falsely. Loving God first means that we love His truth and His commands. It means that we know that God's will is good for us and for all. Thus we show our love to neighbor by loving Him according to God's truth...even when that's difficult.

Think about how much harm is done in the world by way of a false love of neighbor, a counterfeit compassion. The euthanasia movement traffics in this and leads people to commit suicide or to murder their own relatives. Once truth and love are decoupled, we end up doing such things because they seem compassionate and nice. Parents will choose abortion for their daughters because it seems nice and prevents a lot of difficulties for her (so they think). And so on.

At the risk of stoking controversy, it's important to recognize the ordo amoris, the proper order or hierarchy of loves. We love those closest to us first and then extend outward in concentric circles: spouse, children, extended family, friends, neighbors, and so on. We don't want to become like Mrs. Jellyby from Bleak House. She was the mother of a large family but her time was entirely invested in doing good for children in Africa. A noble pursuit, to be sure, but her own children were neglected and living in squalor as a result.

Lord, perfect our love for You, so that we can love others as You desire and according to Your truth.

Fr. Scalia

Parish News

Volunteers Needed!

Please help us make the church sparkle in time for Easter! Saint James is looking for volunteers to help with spring cleaning of the Church on Saturday, April 5th, from 9:30am-11:30am.

We will provide the cleaning supplies and a pizza lunch for all volunteers.

If you would like to help, please call the rectory office at 703-532-1182 to RSVP, so we know how many people to expect for lunch. You can also email Susan Ramsel, sramsel@stjamescatholic.org, to RSVP.

Lenten Almsgiving for Those in Need

As we enter the Lenten season and focus once again on almsgiving, the Social Outreach Committee (SOC) is asking Saint James parishioners to contribute to a fund for families in our area that are struggling financially and need assistance to pay rent, utility bills, and similar fixed expenses.

You can donate one of two ways.

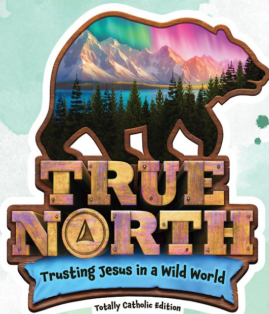

1. Make a check payable to Saint James Catholic Church
◊ Bring the envelope to the rectory, place in collection box, or mail to 905 Park Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22046
2. Make a one-time donation in Faith Direct for the Social Outreach fund at <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50>

Indicate that your gift is for the “SOC Lenten Drive” on your check or in Faith Direct.

By the way, we met our Advent almsgiving goal of giving 100 gift cards to each homeless shelter in our area and 200 gift cards to Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Arlington which were distributed in January. Thank you for your generous work of mercy!

Understanding the Ramifications of the Proposed VA Constitutional Amendment on Abortion—

The proposed amendment is broadly written, and it will be left to judges to interpret its meaning in the future. This opens the door for harmful interpretations of the wording by our courts. Below is another danger in the VA abortion amendment.

This proposed amendment will protect those persons who aid or assist an individual in exercising his/her “reproductive rights.” This amendment could prevent the state from prosecuting any person involved in a minor child’s “reproductive freedom,” with or without the knowledge of parents, if parental rights laws are overturned.

You can search “Text of VA SJ247” or “Text of VA HJ1” and read this proposed amendment.

Lenten Meatless Recipe

Spring is in the air! This weekend, try the risotto-esque wholesome, creamy, white bean lemon pesto orzo soup below that comes together in just 20 minutes! This recipe, along with other meatless recipes, can be found on our Lent 2025 link on our website or scan the QR code. If you have a meatless recipe to share, email Maggie at maggie.lechleitner@atkn.com.

Creamy White Bean Lemon Pesto Orzo Soup

Adapted from Half Baked Harvest

1 tablespoon of extra virgin olive oil
1 shallot, chopped
5 cloves garlic, smashed
red pepper flakes
2 tablespoons salted butter
2 cups dry orzo pasta

6 cups low sodium chicken/vegetable broth
1 can white beans
kosher salt and black pepper
½ bunch kale, finely shredded
½ cup basil pesto

½ cup whole milk or canned full-fat coconut milk
1 cup grated parmesan cheese
zest and juice of 1 lemon

Heat the olive oil in a large Dutch oven over medium-high heat. Add the shallot, garlic, and chili flakes and cook until fragrant, about 5 minutes. Drop in the butter, then stir in the orzo. Cook until golden, 1-3 minutes. Pour in the broth and bring to a boil over high heat. Season with salt and pepper. Stir in the beans and kale. Season with salt and pepper. If you have one, add a parmesan rind. Simmer 8-10 minutes until the orzo is al dente, stirring often. It should become very creamy. Stir in the pesto, milk, parmesan, and lemon, cook another few minutes until warmed through. Divide the orzo and broth among bowls and add additional parmesan and black pepper. You can add some fresh dill, parsley, or basil too.

Spring Planting

Additionally, now is the perfect time to start any seeds you'd like to plant in your garden. Search the internet for DIY seed starter pots you can make with upcycled items like egg cartons, paper towel rolls, newspaper and small boxes. Aim for transplanting your seedlings into the ground or a container in mid-May and enjoy your harvest or flowers in August. If you happen to grow extra vegetable plants, please consider donating them to the parish garden for our spring planting! Details to come in next week's bulletin.

Abounding IN Hope

2025 Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA) Continues

The 2025 BLA theme “Abounding in Hope” is a reminder to always trust in the Lord. It also reminds us that we have the ability to share the hope of Christ with our neighbors, particularly through our BLA contributions. Your gift to the appeal has a tangible impact on the lives of so many across our diocese and is a beacon of Christ's hope to those in need. The 40+ ministries and programs funded by the BLA help our parish in its own pastoral work and are vital to thousands of people in need across our diocese.

All gifts, no matter the size, are gratefully and joyfully accepted! If you have not made your gift or pledge yet, you can scan the QR code or visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/BLA. Our hope is that we will achieve 100% participation from our parish!

The Associates of St. John Bosco Scholarships

The Associates of St. John Bosco's Scholarship application process is now open. This year they have more than doubled their scholarship offerings! They will be awarding up to $40,000 to up to five students who seek to serve the Church in some capacity after they graduate from college. Students must also have demonstrated an intense desire to live out their faith on their college campus. These scholarships are designed specifically for Diocese of Arlington residents.

The application is open to undergraduate students—current high school seniors heading to college in the fall through college juniors.

The deadline to apply is May 19, 2025. Visit <https://www.asjb.org/scholarship-program> for more information or to apply for a scholarship.

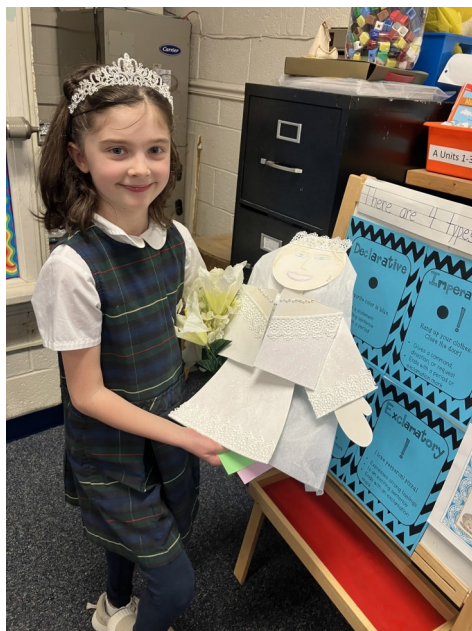

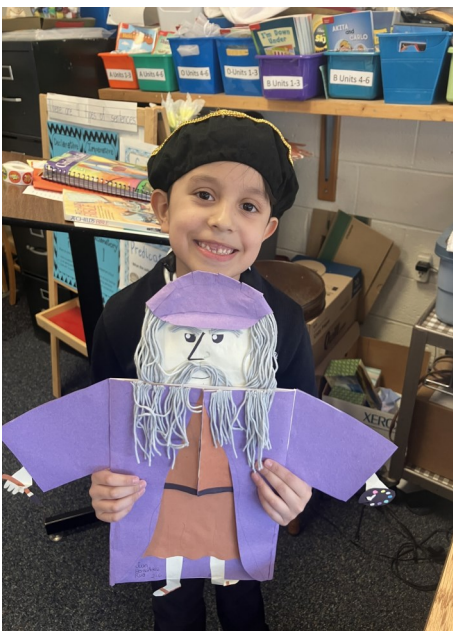

Our National Junior Honor Society students sold Krispy Kreme doughnuts which were delivered on Fat Tuesday for all to enjoy. They raised over $700 which will be used to feed those in need at Christ House.

Our second graders worked hard on their Biography projects which turned out amazing! The students had the option to choose any person they were interested in. They then read an appropriate book about their chosen person and created the project with a written report. In addition, students presented their projects to the class with the aid of notecards. Below our students selected Davinci, Princess Diana, and Julius Caesar for their presentations.
