August Prayer Intention of Pope Francis

Small Businesses-We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

On The Way

Catechesis on the Church: The Church at Pentecost

Right before he ascends to the Father, Jesus' disciples ask a curious question: "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" (Acts 1:6) Well, it's a curious question to us. To them it was entirely reasonable. Jesus had given every sign that he intended to restore the kingdom. The entire theme of his preaching was the Kingdom of God. He called to himself twelve men as a clear sign that he was "reheading" ("rebooting" we might say) the twelve tribes of Israel. So, with his departure imminent, they reasonably ask about the timing.

Significantly, Jesus doesn't rebuke them for the question. First, he cautions them against the human desire to set the divine timeline: "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority." He then gives a thumbnail sketch of the Church, which is the beginning and initial presence of the Kingdom: "You will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Thus, the Kingdom – that is, the Church – is connected with these two things: power from on high (cf. Lk 24:49) and being witnesses. Both are fulfilled in an extraordinary manner at Pentecost, which is often referred to as "the Church's Birthday."

At Pentecost we find the community Christ had gathered (or "called out") to himself gathered in the upper room. It's not a self-formed group. It's not a community of like-minded individuals who came together because of similar interests. No, it's full of people who wouldn't otherwise be together: fishermen and tax collectors, zealots and prostitutes, and so on. Their only commonality was their belief in and devotion to him. Or, better, that he had called them together and to himself.

The power from on high comes first in the form of wind: "[S]uddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind" (Acts 2:2). The wind or breath (the word is the same in Hebrew and Greek) signifies new life being given to a person. As God once formed Adam out of the clay and then breathed life into him (cf. Gen 2:7), so our Lord formed the body of the Church out of his followers and then breathed the life of the Holy Spirit – his own life – into it.

The power from on high comes also in the form of fire: "[T]here appeared to them tongues as of fire" (Acts 2:3). The fire signifies that this group, this body of people, is now the dwelling place of God. Just as fire accompanied his descent onto Mount Sinai at that first Pentecost – "the Lord descended upon it in fire" (Ex 19:18) – so now fire descends no longer on a mere mountain but upon the Church, to show that He is among and, indeed, within his people. The Church displaces Mount Sinai as the place of covenant, his dwelling place, the place where we encounter the living God.

Then the Apostles give witness: "they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim" (Acts 2:4). First and most fundamental for the Church is to proclaim the Gospel. She doesn't exist for herself. She has been formed and given life by Christ to proclaim his Gospel and thus to extend his Kingdom.

Next week: the first years of the Church

Creation Care Ministry Science Night

The Creation Care Ministry held a mini-Night of Science at our parish garden. The evening was a test-run for Creation Care Ministry's science outreach efforts. Kids and their parents were encouraged to touch, experiment, and enjoy the garden. Father Scalia and Father John Paul stopped by in time to observe some magnified flower petals and insects using microscopes. The kids tested the pH of the soils, experimented on seeds, caught and observed insects under the microscope, and learned about garden ecology. The CCM hopes to hold another Night/Day of Science.

Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

Second Collection for The Bánica Mission August 6-7

This weekend, August 6-7, our second collection supports the annual Mission Cooperative Plan Appeal for our diocese. Our parish mission organization is Bánica which the Diocese of Arlington adopted in 1991. This appeal helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, like Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs—like food, shelter and healthcare. Through your support, the MCP Appeal helps these mission organizations form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the universal Church. To donate online to the Bánica Mission Annual Appeal, visit membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/39242.

Here are Father Scalia's thoughts on the importance of this Mission:

"In February of 2009 I had the privilege of visiting our diocesan missions in Bánica and Pedro Santana. With my classmate and friend Father Chris Murphy, I traveled up into the mountains, to the campos – the more than 60 surrounding rural communities that the priests could only get to once a month, at most. It was amazing to see the missionary work of the Church in the Dominican Republic. The missionaries bring the light and supernatural hope of the Gospel to the people. Their work also brings the simple helps to natural human development, such as education, infrastructure work, medicine, and so on."

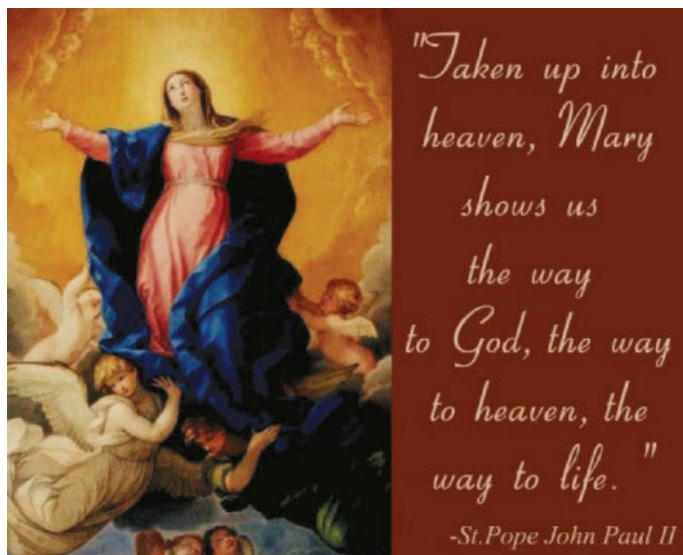

Currently, Rev. Stephen McGraw and Rev. Jeb Donelan are assigned to the mission. To learn more, visit <https://arlingtonmissions.org/banica-mission/>.

Feast of the Assumption of Mary Special Collection

The Feast of the Assumption of Mary falls on a Monday this year. It will not be a Holy Day of Obligation but it is still a day to honor our Blessed Mother Mary. There will be an additional 7:30pm Mass on Monday, August 15th, to honor Our Lady.

In reflecting on the Solemnity of the Assumption, Pope Francis said that Mary "is the model of faith and virtue," and in contemplating her Assumption into heaven, we give her thanks "because she always precedes us on the pilgrimage of life and faith."

There will be a special collection in honor of this Feast. To donate online to this special offertory, visit membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/3363.

Be Not Afraid

Be not afraid. Your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom. Jesus invites us to disentangle our desires and affections from the passing things of this world-not because they are bad but precisely because they are passing away. Instead, he lifts our gaze to that eternal kingdom along with our hopes and efforts so that we may work for things that will not pass away: faith, hope, and love.

In Baptism, we died to the old life and rose to new life in Christ. There is little to gain by seeking future provision for a life we have already left in the past. Our efforts are more fruitfully directed towards preparing to enter into the fullness of eternal life.

Dominican Corner

Jesus came to bring the promised Kingdom to us; he will come again to bring us to the Kingdom. He will gather not those who are found "worthy" but rather those who are found ready.

The Kingdom is given. Believe in it, anticipate it, prepare for it, invest in it. ...And be not afraid.

You are warmly invited to pray Evening Prayer with the St. Mary Magdalene Lay Dominicans on Sunday, August 21st, in the Parish House at 6:15pm. Contact us at Veritas519@googlegroups.com.
