On The Way

Catechesis on the Church: The Church is Infallible

One of the most controversial teachings about the Church is papal infallibility. Now, a lot of the controversy comes from misunderstanding. Papal infallibility does not mean that the pope is always right. In fact, it presumes that he will sometimes be wrong. Rather, the doctrine means that when the pope teaches authoritatively (i.e., clearly defining something required for Catholics to believe) on faith and morals (i.e., not on science, politics, etc.), he cannot err. The pope himself has only acted in this way twice: when Blessed Pius IX defined the Immaculate Conception and when Pope Pius XII defined the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Papal infallibility is best understood as part of the broader infallibility of the Church herself. Again, this does not mean that the teaching authority of the Church won't make mistakes. It means that the Church cannot err in what she requires her faithful to believe about faith and morals. This truth about the Church comes from revelation and from reason.

First, the Gospels clearly show that our Lord willed to give his Church this authority. He says to Peter, "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Mt 16:19-20). Keys are an obvious sign of authority. Every time you give your car key to your teenage child, you're entrusting authority to him over your vehicle. Even more does Jesus, by giving the keys to Peter, invest him with authority over his Church.

This authority, principally found in Peter, is extended to the other Apostles when Jesus says to them, "Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Mt 18:18). So, the Church's bishops also teach infallibly when gathered in union with the pope they teach in ecumenical councils. They also teach infallibly when in agreement throughout the world and throughout history they proclaim what is to be definitively held.

Our Lord gives this authority for a reason. Note that this isn't power for the shepherds to do as they will. It is authority, the capacity and duty to speak on behalf of the Author. The reason he gives this authority corresponds to the nature of faith, which is the ability to believe not what we think is true (that's called opinion) but what actually is true about God and his works. Thus, for faith we need to know what to believe. And the only way we know what to believe is through the Church, God's authoritative voice in the world. Put differently, if belief is required for salvation, then the instrument for communicating what to believe must be endowed with the authority to teach without error. Otherwise, we would not know what to believe and not have salvation.

In all of this, it's important to keep in mind the working presumption that the pope and all shepherds of the Church will at times teach and govern poorly. There are too many examples in history of unclear teachings and poor decisions. So, we don't have to receive every papal pronouncement as infallible. The promise of our Lord is that the pope and the bishops will never require us to believe something erroneous, so that we can give ourselves generously to professing the Catholic Faith.

“Raising Peaceful Children in an Anxious Age: How to De-stress Your Lives and Your Children”

Parish Speaker Series with Ian Masson

Monday, November 7th, 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall

Even prior to COVID, stress, anxiety, and general mental health concerns were on the rise. While shut downs and isolation exacerbated mental health struggles, as society re-opens, many of us, particularly our children and teens, experience struggles to find a new sense of “normal” and are attempting to resolve the effects of the past two years. Instead of treating sources of stress as obstacles and hurdles, using them as “stepping stones” in our spiritual life can actually bring us closer to God. Learn how approaching stress or anxiety with curiosity and compassion and engaging in the spiritual life of the Church can help you and your children experience less stress and a greater sense of God’s peace.

Ian Masson, MS, LPC, is the Director of the IPS Center for Psychological Services, the onsite training clinic of Divine Mercy University. Located in Loudoun County, the IPS Center provides affordable, Catholic-centered counseling and mental health treatment.

Behind the Scenes—Saint James Operations Update

On September 30th, Saint James completed the first quarter of a new fiscal year—Happy New Year! So far, the new year looks good. Offertory totaled $513,610 for the quarter, just a smidge under the year-to-date budget ($514,700). Total Income was $1,054,831, about 4% under budget. Since Total Expenses ($1,635,198) came in even further under budget (7%), our Net Operating Income is better than budget at this point.

Our School is at full enrollment—514 students, including the Preschool. This, along with your steadfast and generous support, is responsible for our financial well-being so we continue to invest heavily in our beautiful and well-used campus facilities. Since my last report, we completed the following capital projects:

- New heating/air conditioning unit in the Convent-side transept of the Church,
- New roof on the Gym,
- New desks for every student in the School,
- A “makeover” for Heller Hall (re-painted walls, outside signage, portrait of Msgr. Heller, and a sign and cross on the stage).

Of course, there’s no rest for the blessed. Here is a snapshot of our current major projects:

- We are waiting on the delivery of materials to replace the remaining old wooden exterior doors for Heller Hall and the School.
- The Church restroom renovations have been designed and put out to bid.
- Engineers are working with the City on the site plan for our Rocket Field improvements.
- Other engineers are designing a heating/air-conditioning system to replace the ailing equipment in the Middle School building.
- The selection of new camera locations for an expansion of our security camera system is almost complete.

Every two years, the Diocese engages an independent CPA firm to conduct an internal audit of our parish finances. Our audit for 2022 is now underway. We always look forward to these opportunities to learn from the experts on financial best practices, although right now we’re in the thick of the paper chase—assembling many, many documents for the auditors to examine!

If you have any questions or comments regarding parish operations, contact Rich at rblickendorfer@stjamescatholic.org.

Social Outreach—Helping Those in Need

Social Outreach Advent Season Gift Card Donations

Once again, Catholic Charities and community homeless shelters have requested gift cards as the easiest way to assist families during the Advent season. This will apply to the refugee families and Food Distribution. In addition, “Adopt A Family” option will be available for Christmas.

The Social Outreach Committee is now collecting gift cards in the suggested amounts of $25 for Walmart, Target, Giant, and Safeway stores. The options for contributing to our Social Outreach Gift Card Project are:

- Donate $25 gift cards.
- Send a check so gift cards can be purchased by the Social Outreach Committee, on your behalf.
 - ⇒ Make checks payable to Saint James.
 - ⇒ On the memo line, write SOC gift card donation.

Please place a card or check in an envelope marked Social Outreach Gift Card Project. Place the envelope in the collection basket, hand deliver to the Rectory Office, or mail the envelope to: Saint James Catholic Church, 905 Park Avenue, Falls Church VA 22046.

Thank you for your generosity in bringing joy to families during this difficult time of year. If you have any questions, email Susan Jackson, bard_susan@msn.com.

Support Falls Church Homeless Shelter

Saint James' Social Outreach Committee provides support for the winter emergency Falls Church Homeless Shelter located at 217 Gordon Road in Falls Church. The shelter's mission is to provide shelter, food, and counseling services for 12 adults in need during the winter season. This year the shelter will open from December 1, 2022, through March 31, 2023. Members of our parish serve on the board and volunteer their time to help the shelter.

How can you support the shelter? In addition to monetary support, parishioners can donate food, personal hygiene items, paper supplies, meals, and their time to work with our residents. Our website, www.fcshelter.org/, provides all the information regarding volunteer work and how to sign up for the different opportunities. This year, we have the option to donate your time and spend an evening at the shelter.

Volunteers are needed on Friday and Saturday evenings from 6:00pm-midnight and will be working hand in hand with the professional staff and the residents. The website also provides the opportunity to go to the Falls Church Homeless Shelter Amazon Wish list and order items to be delivered directly to the shelter. Thank you in advance for your help and volunteer services.

If you have questions, email Luis Frontera, luismifrontera@gmail.com, and put 'FC Shelter' in the subject line.

Seeking 2023 Yearly Calendar Donations

The Social Outreach Kairos Project, that provides prayers and assistance to women prisoners, is asking for 2023 year calendars. All size calendars are welcome but without wire rings. Extra calendars will be given to Food Distribution families on December 2nd.

Drop calendars off before November 17th in the food baskets at entrances to church or the Social Outreach mailbox in the rectory. If you have questions, contact Angela Dinkle, jasamber3@cox.net. Thank you for your support.

Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

Retired Religious Fund November 12-13

Next weekend, our second collection will be for the Retired Religious Fund. Saint James takes up this collection each year for our retired priests and religious. Sadly, changing demographics, rising health care costs, and lack of funding are making it increasingly difficult for religious orders to care for those who have given their lives to God.

To donate via Faith Direct, go to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1493>.

Archdiocese for Military Services USA November 5-6

This weekend, our parish will take up a collection to benefit the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). This collection, approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, is taken up every three years.

The AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or U.S. Military and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. Instead, it must rely on the generosity of those whose values and priorities align with its mission, programs and services, to meet its costs. Please prayerfully consider a contribution to this special collection to support active-duty military men and women, and their families, including those from our own parish.

To donate via Faith Direct, visit <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/49603>.
