On The Way

Catechesis on the Church: The Church is Catholic

Actually, that should say that the Church is catholic, with a small “c.” This mark of the Church doesn’t describe the brand name of the Church – Catholic as different from Lutheran, Episcopal, or Orthodox. Rather, it describes an essential aspect of Christ’s Church. Indeed, it is one of the earliest descriptions of the Church. In the year 110 AD, while Saint Ignatius of Antioch was being transported in captivity to Rome for certain martyrdom, he wrote letters to different churches. In his letter to the church in Smyrna, he wrote, “wherever Jesus Christ is, there is the catholic Church.”

Notice how Ignatius connects the presence of Jesus and the catholicity of the Church. It is Jesus himself who makes the Church catholic because he reaches to all, and he unites all. The word “catholic” means universal, but not in the sense of everything just thrown together. Rather, it indicates all things brought together by a unifying factor, as an organic whole. Jesus Christ himself is the principle of unity in the Church because all things are reconciled and summed up in him (Col 1:20; Eph 1:10).

The Church is catholic because she is meant for all peoples. This might seem obvious to us. We take for granted that not only Christianity, but every religion is open to all people. Indeed, we rank openness and welcome above all else. But the ancient world was different. Every country or city-state had its own god, who was in effect confined to that place or people. The notable exception was Israel, who proclaimed their Lord as the Creator and God of all, not just of them and their region. The Church born of Israel is commissioned by her Lord, “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations” (Mt 28:19). The Church has done just that, proclaiming the Gospel throughout the world.

The Church is open to “every nation, race, people, and tongue,” to whoever professes the Faith. More to the point, the Church is the means by which and the place in which God gathers all peoples together and restores the original unity of man he intended from the beginning. Thus, on Pentecost people from all nations hear the Apostles preaching in their own language (Acts 2). Of course, many organizations now boast diversity and inclusion. What makes the Church different is that she has a principle of unity, something – Someone – who makes diverse peoples one. The Church brings all peoples together as one in Christ.

The Church is catholic also because of the “universal call to holiness.” All members of the Church are called to sanctity; no one is off the hook. In this, the Church is the most egalitarian institution in the world. Every member of the Church receives the same Baptism, Communion, and Reconciliation. And every member of the Church is called to be holy. No exceptions.

The Church is universal also because she possesses all truth – that is, the fullness of truth necessary for salvation. Every religion, philosophy, and even ideology possesses some truth. But they do so in an incomplete and partial manner. The Church alone teaches the entire truth about God and man. This means that the profession of the Faith must be catholic – whole and entire. To believe just part of what the Church teaches is to have not less faith but no faith. To be catholic and Catholic means to assent to all that the Church proclaims as necessary to be believed.

– Fr. Scalia

Parish News

Padre Pio Relics

Saint Padre Pio was an Italian priest who bore the wounds of Christ, which is still something that cannot be explained. Beginning in 1918, at the age of 30, he reported bleeding from his hands, feet and side—the stigmata wounds of Christ’s crucifixion. The wounds were said to have lasted 50 years, until his death.

Saint James will host the Padre Pio Relics starting this Sunday, October 23-Monday, October 24. Visitors will be able to venerate relics from this mystic and stigmatist. The event will end on Monday evening at 7:00pm in the Church. Father Jerome Fasano will talk about the life of Padre Pio and the influence Padre Pio had on his life.

Those wishing to venerate the relics can only enter through the main doors. The side doors will be for exiting only.

Parish Speaker Series with Ian Masson

Monday, November 7th, 7:00pm in Monsignor Heller Hall

“Raising Peaceful Children in an Anxious Age: How to De-stress Your Lives and Your Children”

Even prior to COVID, stress, anxiety, and general mental health concerns were on the rise. While shut downs and isolation exacerbated mental health struggles, as society re-opens, many of us, particularly our children and teens, experience struggles to find a new sense of “normal” and are attempting to resolve the effects of the past two years. As a society we have many comforts and technologies that are supposed to make life easier but continue to experience chronically high levels of stress. Instead of treating sources of stress as obstacles and hurdles, using them as “stepping stones” in our spiritual life can actually bring us closer to God. Learn how approaching stress or anxiety with curiosity and compassion and engaging in the spiritual life of the Church can help you and your children experience less stress and a greater sense of God’s peace.

Ian Masson, MS, LPC is the Director of the IPS Center for Psychological Services, the onsite training clinic of Divine Mercy University. Located in Loudoun County, the IPS Center provides affordable, Catholic-centered counseling and mental health treatment.

First Saturday All Night Adoration November 4-5

Remember our all night First Saturday Eucharistic Adoration. We will expose the Blessed Sacrament at 7:30pm on the Friday before, November 4th, and repose the Eucharist before the 8:30am Mass on the First Saturday, November 5th.

There are still openings for the late night/early morning hours. If you can sign up for an Adoration timeslot, visit www.signupgenius.com/go/8050f4aabee23a13-first.

Father Scalia appeals to the men of the parish, especially, to sign up for the wee hours of the morning.

Natural Family Planning Group

Do you love Natural Family Planning (NFP)? Then you might need help. Couples practicing or seeking to practice Natural Family Planning can flourish by supporting one another.

Saint James’ new NFP group, Way of Life, exists to do just that through fellowship and the sharing of information. Come join us for chili and casual conversation on Sunday, November 6th at 6:00pm in the Knecht Conference Room. For more information, contact Susan Baumert, (703-946-8432; susanbaumert@gmail.com) or Laura Kirchgraber, LFKirch@gmail.com.

Laudato Si Tip of the Week

Laudato Si is an encyclical of Pope Francis published in 2015 that focuses on care for the natural environment and all people, as well as broader questions of the relationship between God, humans, and the Earth.

This week’s tip: Try to eliminate as much disposable plastic from your life as possible. It breaks down into tiny particles that enter streams, lakes and oceans, harming fish and other wildlife. Instead, keep a reusable water bottle; wash and reuse plastic sandwich and snack bags, or try replacing them with waxed paper or waxed-paper bags, which can be composted. For more information, email Zoey Maraist, zoeydimauro@gmail.com.

Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

World Mission Sunday October 22-23

This weekend, October 22-23, our second collection will be for World Mission Sunday. In 1926, Pope Pius XI instituted World Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927. Since that time, the World Mission Sunday collection is always taken on the next to last Sunday during the month of October. It will support over 1,000 local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these missionary churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, hope, and peace. You can donate via Faith Direct at membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1492.

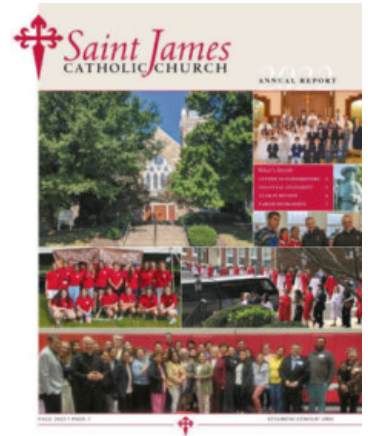

Saint James Annual Report for FY2022

We hope you will enjoy this year's Annual Report. It has been mailed to all registered parishioners. Please take a few moments to read the report, entitled "Our Year in Review" to see how our parish returned to pre-pandemic activity. Father Scalia spoke about the financial and spiritual health of the parish at last week's Masses.

Please complete the stewardship envelopes mailed to your home. There will be extras in the vestibule of the church. In addition to making a weekly or monthly pledge for 2023, you can also update your contact information and check off areas of interest in serving the parish.

This year we have listed more specific areas to volunteer. We hope you can find a way to share your time and talent in our parish community.

And, thank you for all you have contributed to the parish this past year, be it your time, your talent, or your treasure. We are most grateful!
